HOSTELS

The Saintlo hostels are located in the three big city centres —
Montréal, Ottawa and Toronto.

We are a social economy business,
a nonprofit association.

and we've got an extended family

Great independent hostels located in Québec and Ontario.

This is the Saintlo collective.

a collective of youth hostels

To explore a territory with a thousand and one adventures with people from all over.

over 85 years of experience

85 years of experience

We're a group of travel enthusiasts who have been working in the youth accommodation field since 1938.

From the tip of the Gaspé Peninsula to the Great Lakes of Ontario, we welcome people who are open to all cultures, adventures and spontaneous get-togethers.

young travellers are always at the centre of all our efforts

Our mission is to create positive encounters between people from here and around the world and to promote the discovery of our territory.

our values

Sociable

We promise to offer sociable accommodation. Hostels designed to encourage sharing, discovery and socialization.

Young

We are for the youth and we are young in spirit. We embrace the values of today's youth and support their ideals.

Local

We promote our destinations and encourage their discovery through an offer of affordable accommodations.

Lively

We adapt and evolve continuously, like the world and the youth we represent.

Mindful

We encourage a more responsible way of travelling, celebrating diversity and creating environments where everyone feels they belong.

orientations

Innovation

To be recognized as the most innovative and dynamic youth accommodation provider in Quebec and Ontario.

Inclusion

Create a collaborative and respectful environment where everyone feels a sense of belonging.

Facilitation

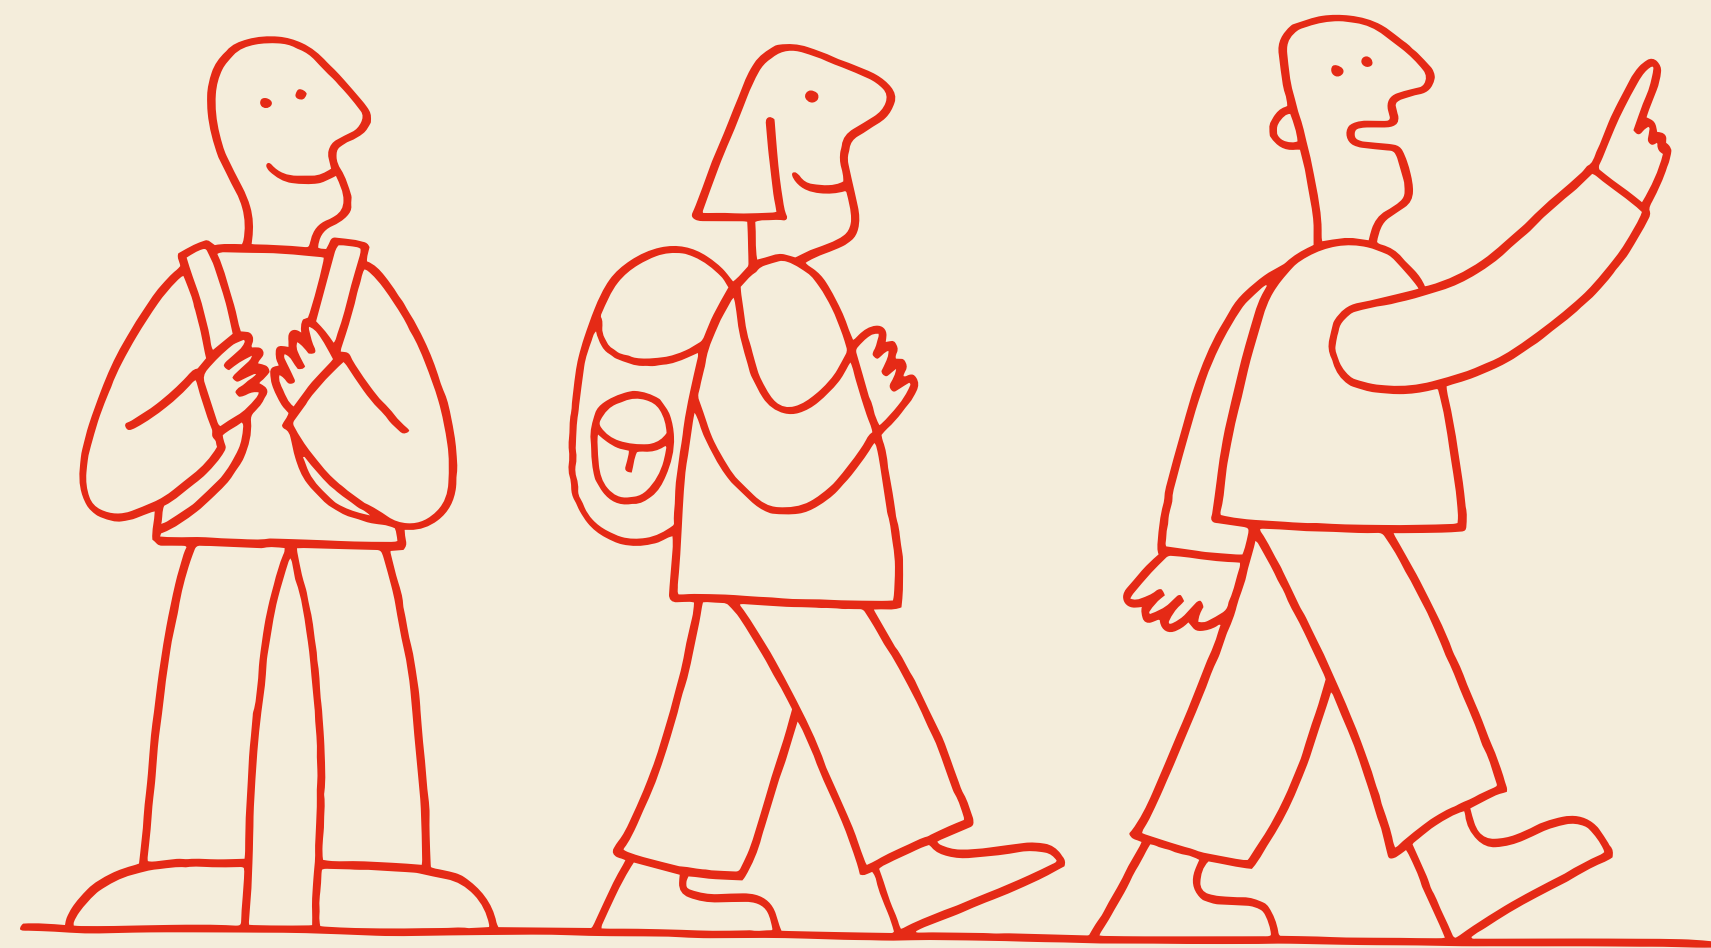

To play a proactive role within our hostel collective, and act as a facilitator between the various tourism authorities.

Responsibility

Continuously strive to reduce our carbon footprint and ensure that travel is always accessible to young people.

Saintlo combines the name of our organization “Auberges de jeunesse du Saint-Laurent” and its playground, which follows the St. Lawrence River.

That’s why we’re called Saintlo.

Saintlo
name

the saintlo voice

Our typography is a central element of our identity: present and bold, it is the voice of Saintlo.

Its roundness and its lowercase design conveys our hospitality and our friendliness.

palette

Inspired by travel memories and the richness of the hostel culture, the Saintlo brand is lively and fun, with vivid colours and a multitude of variations.

Our colour palette is nature-inspired and infuses calm tones with modern elements to create a playful balance.

what we do best

We're a group of travel enthusiasts who share the same dream:
offer places to stay that are social.

Our hostels in Québec and Ontario are supported by warm and welcoming teams, who are excited to share their part of the country with travellers from all over.

saintlo
foundation

- Did you know? We donate $1 to the Saintlo Foundation for each night spent in the Saintlo Montréal and Saintlo Ottawa hostels.
- The Saintlo Foundation helps young people in vulnerable situations, explore new places and blossom to their full potential.
- We want them to live out enriching experiences and meet a diverse variety of passionate people the world over. We've been helping young people access the pleasure of traveling since 1993.

Saintlo is much more than three places to stay — Montréal, Ottawa and Toronto: it's a network of independent hostels that we call our extended family,
in Québec and Ontario.

Join us and share your passion for exploration while discovering the hidden gems of our immense playground, that we call Québec and Ontario!
